BOARD NEWS

The annual assessment payment of $450 is due by December 31. The Board hopes everyone pays by the end of the year to avoid the $100 monthly fine imposed on delinquent accounts.

The Board sends a big “Thank You” to all of the Committees, Chairs and Block Captains for all of their efforts during the course of the year. These volunteers are a major reason our neighborhood is a great place to live.

Several complaints were received regarding trash bins not being fully emptied. Constable Sanitation has been made aware of the issue and they indicated it will be addressed.

Finally, the Board wishes everyone a Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah and/or joyous Festivus or whatever occasion you happen to celebrate this time of year. For those travelling, we hope your journeys are safe and you have a Happy New Year.

HALLOWEEN TRICK OR TREAT COOKOUT

Thanks goes out to Whitney Frazier for her help with the Halloween Party for the Savannah Ridge neighborhood. The pumpkin decorating and food was fantastic. The kids and families had such a fun time.

SAVANNAH RIDGE ENTRANCE

Thanks to the Common Grounds committee for all of their hard work with the holiday lighting and decorating the entrance to Savannah Ridge. It makes our neighborhood look very festive and we all appreciate the hard work.

TRASH DELAY

Trash will be delayed one day the week of Christmas and New Years

BUNCO

The Bunco ladies had a blast at the last Bunco party Thank you, Amy Werner and Rose Scanlon, for hosting the fun “fall fest”. The winners for the night were Janet Simonitsch, Lisa Humphreys, Carolyn, Abels and Lena Towler.

Don't miss out on all the fun. Come to the next Bunco night out on Monday, January 21st at 6:30pm.

Amy Lane and Laurie Bloom are hosting the party at Laurie's home, 4205 NE Suwannee Dr. To RSVP or to ask questions email her at lbloom100@gmail.com or call 816-985-3058. The theme is "Warm up with a Winter Beach Party". Join us to melt your winter blues away.

HOLIDAY LIGHT DISPLAYS AROUND TOWN

Festival of Lights

Thurs-Sun Nov. 23 - Jan. 6 at Powell Gardens 1609 N.W. U.S. Highway 50, Kingsville, MO. A lighting exhibition, artfully curated by the Powell Gardens Horticulture staff, the Festival of Lights includes botanically-themed lighting displays that begin at the garden entrance and stretch along a winding pathway through six of the seven themed gardens.

Christmas in the Park

Longview Lake Park (I-470 & View High Drive, Kansas City, MO, 816.503.4800); open Thanksgiving Eve through Christmas, Sun.-Thu., 5:30-10:00; Fri. & Sat., 5:30-11:00. This display is outstanding and worth the drive, even if you live 30-45 minutes away. It is also extremely popular, so weeknights are your best chance to avoid a long wait to see the display. Beware of deer end route as many live nearby!

Candy Cane Lane

Outlook Street and 79th Street in Prairie Village, KS. This neighborhood decorates with amazing displays. See candy canes, giant Christmas trees, and beautifully lit homes.

Christmas Card Lane

Ridgeview & 151st Street in Olathe, KS. This neighborhood decorates with beautiful Christmas lights and giant wooden Christmas cards.

Lane of Lights

The Lane of Lights is located along Lovers Lane in East Valley Park in Excelsior Springs, MO. The Christmas Committee has created this lighted drive-through holiday display to give families and friends a destination on cold winter evenings. It's a great way to top off or start an evening out to dinner or the movies, the school holiday performance or your family get-together. Volunteers will greet each vehicle as it enters the park. A donation of $5 per car is suggested. Enjoy the lights from Sunday – Thursday 5:30 – 9 p.m. and Friday & Saturday 5:30 – 10 p.m.
